

Post-Adoption Services

Adoption is a life-long process. At each stage of life, the adoptee has new issues to address. Each stage of life brings challenges for the adoptive family. Adoption impacts the extended family.

Creating New Families helps all generations deal with the complex issues presented by adoption.

- Individual counseling for adoptee and adoptive parents
- Family counseling for adoptive families
- Information sessions for adoptive grandparents
- Individual, couple, and family counseling for birthparents
